

FIRST LADY ELSIE OTOO

Elsie Otoo is the first lady of Action Chapel Virginia, in Alexandria, Va. Apart from serving in ministry alongside her husband, Bishop Kibby Otoo, Lady Elsie is an internationally acclaimed vocalist and stirring prophetic psalmist. She lives to worship Jesus Christ with her whole life, and her worship reflects the strength of her relationship with Him. One of the greatest desires of her heart is to see God's kingdom and power manifest for people to be set free, healed and radically changed as they encounter the Lord's presence.

Lady Elsie's musical journey began at the early age of 8, when she started singing with her family in concerts and crusades around Africa, Europe, the United States and Canada. As a teenager, Lady Elsie's vocal skills and powerful, anointed worship became evident. It also soon became clear that God was birthing in her a desire to lead others into His presence as she began to lead worship at Action Chapel International and traveled to various nations ministering in song with her father, Archbishop Nicholas Duncan-Williams, known all over the world as The Apostle of Strategic Prayer.

In addition to assisting her husband in ministry, Lady Elsie is a proud mother of four beautiful daughters, Miracle, Christina, Zoe and Angela.
